

Bloodborne Pathogens Training Quiz

1. Name three bloodborne pathogens:

2. By killing or damaging cells of the body's immune system, HIV progressively destroys the body's ability to fight infections and certain cancers. Please select one:

True False

3. HIV can survive for long periods outside the body. Please select one:

True False

4. HBV is spread through contact with which methods?

- a. Contact with infected blood
- b. sexual contact with an infected person
- c. contaminated needles
- d. mother-to-child transmission
- e. All of the above

5. Hepatitis C is rare in the United States. Please select one:

True False

6. You should only wear protective equipment if you know the person's blood contains a bloodborne pathogen. Please select one:

True False

7. What forms of Personal Protective Equipment should be worn during Janitorial work?

- a. Goggles
- b. Latex gloves
- c. Respiratory Masks
- d. None of the above
- e. All of the above

8. As a non-medical volunteer, you will most likely never come in contact with bodily fluids that may contain pathogens. Volunteers should always stay within the scope of their position, and never engage in an activity they are not licensed to perform. Please select one:

True False

Bloodborne Pathogens Training Quiz

9. If you feel an activity is unsafe, let your supervisor know as soon as you complete the activity so they can make changes to ensure that it doesn't happen again. Please select one:
- True False